

AMY ORR-EWING LEADERSHIP PROGRAM BIO

Dr Amy Orr-Ewing is an international author, speaker and theologian who addresses the deep questions of our day with meaningful answers found in the Christian Faith. She is passionate about the intersection of questions of meaning and faith with the marketplace, education, leadership and policy making and has nearly 25 years experience working in the field of public theology. During that time Amy has pioneered as a female leader in many settings, and has co-created global initiatives including REBOOT and Festival of Thought. She has led international teams of motivated speakers and thinkers and has launched various women's leadership initiatives within the church and workplace. Amy regularly addresses leadership teams and conferences where she draws on her extensive experience and insights to coach leaders. Amy offers workshops, seminars and intensive leadership input in areas such as Creativity vs Management, Caring Who Gets the Credit, When Women Stay Quiet, Trauma Informed Leadership, Measuring the Right Things and What Feedback Can't Tell You.
